Across The Board

RIVE—"Now we really can get rolling," commented Pres Jenuine, Vice-President-Racing for Western Harness, as he glanced out his window and saw Gary Buston, Robin Burn and Dick Williams driving through the Hollywood Park parking lot.

All three men were associated with Louisville Downs race track earlier this summer and will be key members of the Western Harness racing department during the 1974 Hollypark sulky meeting that begins Thursday night, Aug. 22.

Buston, a 31-year-old native of Urbana, Ohio and the brother of prominent trainerdriver Dick Buston, will be serving his first full season as the head of the WHR racing office. He took over as Racing Secretary late in the 1973 meet after serving as chief assistant for several years. Buxton also is racing secretary at Louisville Downs.

Burn, 23, has ventured West for the first time to replace Roy Shudt as track announcer. He worked in that capacity at Louisville and also has served stints calling races at Buffalo Raceway and Pocono Downs.

The veteran Williams, at one time one of the nation's leading harness drivers, will begin his sixth season as the official starter for Western Harness.

REMARKABLE IS WORD FOR PINCAY-Laffit Pincay, en route to bagging his second Eclipse Award, became the first jockey in history to have his mounts earn more than $4 million in 1973.

The remarkable, 27-year-old Panamanian, who recently registered his sixth Hollywood Park riding championship by winning a record 148 races, is well ahead of his '73 pace in money won, through the first six months of this year.

Now in action at Saratoga, Pincay finished the month of July with 244 victories and his mounts have gleaned Robbins will have no excuse if $2,983,519 through July. Last
